The Pastoral Perspective

The liturgical calendar is both blessing and bane. With its steady procession of holidays and seasons, colors and cycle of readings, the church year offers a welcome framework within which we can worship God, read and study Scripture, and journey deeper into our common life as a church. We perennially follow a path that has been blazed, developed, and enhanced by our forebears in the faith. The familiar is good, a guide, a powerful aid to the living of the Christian life. But it is not perfect.

The old adage has it that familiarity breeds contempt. In the church, I believe it can lead to another danger: complacency. We like the familiar in part because it is comforting, because we know how and why and where things are to be done. This may be a good thing when following a route between two places, but it is a danger when we're trying to meet God. Complacency in faith can lead to laziness, lack of intention, and disengagement. Never is this clearer than during the season of Lent.

Consider the Lenten disciplines that many of us will follow this year. Whether we give up or adopt something for the liturgical season, it is likely to be no different from what we've done in years past. As noted earlier, this can be good, since it will offer a framework for a season of reflection and repentance. But it can also lead us into a rut, one where we simply do something because we've done it before.

As we enter into Lent, we would do well to remember that God is not looking for us to simply go through the motions, nor is he interested in whether we can follow a process or routine. What matters to the One who made us in love is what is in our hearts: our intent, our longings, our desires, our priorities. What is it that we really want? Do we truly seek to repent? Do we truly seek to turn away from sin? Do we hope and pray to make a break with those things that come between us and God, and between us and our brothers

SUNDAY SERVICE

ANNUAL MEETING 2015

Sunday, February 8—Following Worship

FEBRUARY 15 IS SCOUT SUNDAY

Our church is proud to serve as the host and charter organization for both Boy Scout Troop 279 and Cub Scout Pack 279, offering meeting space throughout the year. On February 15, we recognize this faithful relationship by inviting the scouts to join us and participate in worship.

Please plan to attend and support Scouting!

Participate in Worship!

Serve as a Liturgist or Greeter/Usher

Have you dreamed of handing out bulletins on Sunday? Or delivering the call to worship and reading scripture from the lectern? Or walking gracefully from pew to pew collecting the offering?

We can make that dream a reality.

No experience or training is required. If you'd like to serve as either a liturgist or a greeter/usher, please contact the church office.

Your congregation will thank you!

Ash Wednesday
Ecumenical

Once again we're "tackling" hunger in our local community with a soup collection on the first two weekends in February. Please leave your canned items in the collection boxes in the Parish Hall, and we'll distribute them to Headrest, Listen Community Services, and the UV Haven. (Donations accepted through February 8.)

Thanks for your generosity!

COMMITTEE NOTES

CHURCH COUNCIL

At the January Council meeting Todd Heatherton surveyed year-end figures, noting again that pledges are down. He added, though, that Waldo trust fund distributions could be used to repay the escrow accounts that had been depleted in the past two years. The church also took in more payments for use of church space. Special collection income has remained relatively steady.

Todd also presented the Finance Committee's proposed budget for 2015, pointing out just a few areas of interest. One expense that appears significantly lower is heating costs, reflecting both reduced prices and usage conservation. Also, the Grafton-Orange Association contribution, which is determined by number of active members, could be revised downward with a more thorough review of our membership rolls.

Amy Driscoll reported on the status of the 2015 nominating process, which remains incomplete. She noted a few areas of particular concern, such as the need for a third trustee and new members on Stewardship and Nominating. Openings also exist on the Board of Governors, the Diaconate, and Mission and Social Action.

Discussion also focused on the role and responsibilities of the Church Administrator, and on the expected hours and compensation for this position. As volunteer roles change (for example Treasurer and Clerk) and committees rely heavily on the church office for more centralized coordination, the Administrator is charged with more responsibilities. Barry Schuster will be continuing this discussion with the Personnel Committee.

Jon Scott noted that a reminder has been sent out regarding 2015 pledges, asserting the usefulness of the pledge process to our annual planning.

FIRE and ICE

Sunday, February 22, 12:30 pm (alt. date March 1)

Continuing its program of spiritual walks, the FCC "Outing Club" invites everyone to meet after worship at Ron Bailey's house in Plainfield village for FIRE AND ICE. We'll grill hot dogs over a fire pit, down some cocoa, then head out through fields and forest to Blow-Me-Down Brook, before returning to the fire for s'mores. Both one-hour and half-hour snowshoe loops available. (Don't have snowshoes? We'll lend you a pair!)

2015 ANNUAL MEETING—SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8

The Annual Meeting of the First Congregational Church of Lebanon, NH, will be held in the Parish Hall on Sunday, February 8, 2015, immediately following the worship service, for the purpose of:

1. The election of all officers provided for under the CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS of the church.
2. To hear the reports of all officers, committees, and organizations, as required under the CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS of the church.
3. To consider and act upon any other matters relating to the general church welfare that may properly come before this meeting, including but not limited to the following:
  - A. Church Council, following recommendations from the Nominating Committee and an ad-hoc task force for reviewing the church's committee structure, proposes a number of amendments to the CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS, all concerning the required membership of committees. The rationale behind these amendments is to allow the nominating process flexibility in cases when committee and officer vacancies exceed the number of congregation members willing and available to fill them. Because the proposed amendments are fragmentary and widely dispersed throughout the BY-LAWS, their verbatim inclusion within this meeting warrant is impractical. Thus, a copy of the complete BY-LAWS with revisions clearly highlighted in bright yellow has been posted with this warrant for congregational review; additionally, the revised copy has been made available online on the church web site.

Volunteer Opportunities Still Available!

THE SEASON OF LENT AT FCC

Lent is a time for us to reflect upon our relationship with God, to examine our walk with Jesus, and to take stock of our lives as we prepare for the great miracle and gift of Easter.

Lent is a time to look within our souls and hearts, to set aside those things that separate us from God and God's people.

Lent is a time to journey into the wilderness, so that we may fully enter into the New Creation.

and sisters in Christ? What matters to Jesus is how we grapple with these questions—not whether or not we diligently forego our chocolate for forty days and forty nights. What captures our Lord’s attention is our willingness to venture into the wilderness of the Spirit, where we are called to pray and reflect about things we might prefer to leave unexamined and unengaged.

And so, in the days approaching Ash Wednesday, let us give thanks for the seasons of the church year and offer gratitude for things familiar. Let’s give thanks not because the familiar seasons comfort us, not because they make life easy, but because they—if we are open to the example of Jesus Christ and the workings of the Holy Spirit—can bring us to a startlingly new place, one where we can be open and honest before and with God.

Yours faithfully,

Steve

THE LIFE OF OUR CONGREGATION

Clockwise from top left: 1) A lovely winter altar display most of us never saw, since Kathie Schuster graciously arranged it before realizing that worship was moving to the Parish Hall. 2) As church-school children look on, Steve Silver welcomes Don Rowell, Denise Moriarty, and Henry Danaher as new covenant members on January 11. 3) Marcy Chong, with the able assistance of her family and friends from UV Waldorf School, serves Community Dinner on January 25. As Ron Bailey and Barry Schuster can attest, it was delicious! 4) The SOUPER BOWL has gone into overtime—and there's still some room left in those boxes!
